SUMMARY

I am currently a junior at Otis College of Art and Design. Through my years of university, I have gained studio and illustration skills, as well as being well-rounded in Adobe Illustrator and Photoshop. I am always eager to look for new opportunities that will improve my skillset and knowledge associated with fashion design and illustrations. I am a creative person with versatile skills and for best output, I like to explore with colors and shapes. When I feel ambitious and driven on projects that I am working on, I always put in my full effort. Endeavor into the Fashion Industry has always been a personal goal of mine, especially in the past several years where I have realized it truly is one of my greatest passions.
